CALL FOR RESERVATIONS

The second biennial CODEX International Book Fair and Symposium will take place February 8 - 11, 2009 on the campus of the University of California, Berkeley. We are gathering together a congress of the world's finest private presses, book artisans, artists, curators, collectors and scholars in the spirit of an Old West rendezvous. The Symposium and Bookfair will provide an opportunity to see and be seen in a relaxed setting. The best and most current work of a truly international group of artists and artisans will be on display. Participants from all the Americas, Europe, Asia, Australia and New Zealand have responded. The San Francisco Bay Area's libraries, book-arts & bibliophilic organizations host an abundance of events, exhibits and receptions during the week. Finally, the following weekend, will be the 42nd annual California International Antiquarian Book Fair, certainly one of the biggest and best in the world. This will be an historic "bookweek" in the grand scale of the San Francisco tradition!

The 2009 biennial CODEX Foundation International Book Fair at the Pauley Ballroom on the campus of the University of California at Berkeley

The Book Fair will be limited to 120 exhibitors and vendors and will be held in the 10,000 square foot Pauley Ballroom at the top of Telegraph Avenue. Each exhibitor will be furnished with a 2.5 x 6 ft. table and 2 chairs. Forty tables are reserved for exhibitors from outside the United States and eighty tables for American presses, organizations, and vendors.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The second biennial Codex International Book Fair will be taking place in the ASUC Pauley Ballroom on the campus of the University of California Berkeley. The ballroom is near the intersection of Telegraph Ave. and Bancroft way.

Please check the CODEX website for the latest updates. www.codexfoundation.org

The Pauley Ballroom will be closed and securely locked except during Sunday's setup hours and the published fair hours. Exhibitors with badges will be admitted after 11 a.m. each day to the exhibition area.

Each exhibitor table will be provided with a 2.5 by 6 foot trestle table and two chairs.

Please bring your own cloth table coverings.

Exhibitor registration packets with maps, schedules, badges and more will be on the tables in the ballroom.

Arrival, set-up, and break-down information will be posted soon. Please see website schedule for dates and times.

The ballroom's floor-to-ceiling windows look out over Sproul Plaza and the UC Berkeley campus and every effort will be made to create a festive atmosphere within.

The price of admission to the fair for the general public for THREE days is $15. A single-day ticket is $10.

A THREE-day ticket for students (with I.D.) is $5.

The nearest airport is the Oakland International Airport (OAK), San Francisco International (SFO) is also nearby. Both airports are about 30 - 45 minutes travel by car from Berkeley. Both are also accesable by BART (regional train / subway). The BART stop for the conference is the Downtown Berkeley station, a one block from the University campus.
